BOISE PITCHER POUNDED HARD

Win Indians Games.

Fruit Pickers Were Just Fruit for the Braves From Spokane.

Three of the Idaho Crowd Were Injured Slightly in the Morning Game.

Special to The Tribune. POKANE, Wash, July 4-The fire works for the Indians in the morning game started in the first inning and although not a continual flare. It was exciting enough to hold the 1000 people in their seats to the end. With the exception of the second inning, when Boise, on a combination of wild throws by the Indians, crossed the home plate for four runs, Spokane had the game all her own way, and won by 11 to 7.

Batting averages were fattened in the second, when Spokane added four runs to the two of the first inning. Howiett went out at first after sending a dinkey to Babbitt; he was followed by Stanley, who ripped a nice one through a hole in the infield which landed him on the first bag. Ferris, Carney, Rockenfeld and Frary When three hits more in the third were checked against McFarland and four more braves crossed the plate, it was too much, and he was replaced by Starkell, who gave a fair exhibition for the rest of the game. Holland on first received a crack in the knce in the fifth inning, and Carney, who had been pitching good ball, was moved to first, and Willie Hogg came from the bench to complete the discomfiture of the Boiseltes. In the sixth Kellackey on first received a bump and was replaced by Wright, who showed that he was as good on the initial bag as in the box. Score:

Afternoon Game.

At only one time of the day, the first two innings of the afternoon game, did victory seem to take even a peep at the Idaho standard. The end of the second inning found the score 4 to 1 in favor of the visitors. Two innings of hard playing subjucated the infants and put the warriors on their feet. With the score tied honors remained even for two innings. The eighth brought gloomy defeat to McKarland and his backers. The inning opened for Spokane with a home run by Rockenfield and he was followed across the plate by five of his companions before a single man was out. By the time all three men were put out two more runs had trickled in and the score stood 12 to 5. A base on balls and a stolen base for Frary, Relly hit by a pitched ball, two errors by Bolse men and three stolen bases for Carney, coupled with five hits were McFariand's undoing.

PORTLAND, Or., July 4.—Los Angeles and Portland broke even today, the visitors shutting out the local team in the morning and Portland returning the compliment this afternoon. In the morning game the home team was able to find Gray for only five scattered hits, and while Iberg gave but eight, they were badly bunched. For eight and a half innings this afternoon 600 spectators witnessed a masterly fight between Baum and Buller. Both had kept their hits scattered and been afforded excellent support, when Chase unfortunately overthrew into the outfield in throwing to second, and enabled Portland to score. Scores:

DUTTE, Mont., July 4.-Awful field work on the part of the home team gave Salt Lake the morning game in easy fashion. Butte pounded Merebut Essick came to the rescue and saved the day, while for Butte Bandelin was pounded out of the box toward the ast part of the game, after putting up a good front for several innings. Errors on asy hits were frequent with the Miners, md contributed largely to the piling up of runs. As a whole the game was a skyrocket exhibition appropriate to the day, recket exhibition appropriate to the day, but serious to the Buttes. Nine errors were tallied against the home team, even the old steadles being infected and miss-ing nice juicy plants of the Elders. The visitors kept their eyes open and did not miss a chance for a move around the dia-mond, while the Miners appeared to be dreaming.

mond, while the Miners appeared to be dreaming.

Butto redeemed itself in the last game. Runkle and Spencer did the heavy work in winning the game when it looked as if the Elders would wind up the series with both games of the Fourth. In a fast game both teams went to the third with nothing doing, coming out with three tailles each in that inning. In the fourth Salt Lake added one and repeated it in the fifth. In the sixth Vasbinder showed signs of going up in the air, but Spencer saved the day and kept the visitors from scoring by catching two Salt Lakers as they tried to steal second.

catching two Sait Lakers as they tried to steal second.

In their half the Miners passed two men over the home plate through gifts and good running, following with two more when Runkle sent the ball over to center for three bags. From then until the last of the game there was nothing more for either side. Toxler pitched a good game, his support being responsible for the loss of the game. Excepting the one inning Vashinder was steady. Umpire Ward made some scally decisions against the home team, but gave them one in return that looked as if Sait Lake should have had. Hausen was in bad form, making several hum throws to second that were costly. The score:

mission company defeated the Ogden team at Glenwood field this afternoon by the score of 6 to 5exactly the same score as that o the long game of yesterday. Shurtling was not as effective as usual, but pitched heady ball just the same. Castleton, for the visitors, showed remarkable endurance. After pitching fourteen inningayesterday, he again entered the box and held the locals down to nine hits, and won the game. Checketts, ogden's shortstop, was way off color, and accepted but three chances out of seven. The features of the game were the hitting of Leavitt and Johnson for Ogden and Roy Castleton for the visitors. The feature in the fielding line was an unassisted double play by Leavitt, the first one seen on the local diamond for three seasons. R. Castleton opened the ninth with a hit, and was followed by James, who shot a hot one to Leavitt, who caught it and stepped on the bag before Castleton could get back. Another hair-raising play was a phenomenal left-handed catch of a line drive by W. Smith, Score: was not as effective as usual, but pitched C C C

DEFEAT ELKS

Score of Twenty-One to Eighteen.

Game Rife With Errors and Scarcely a Single Good Play.

Hit and Run Was the Order of the Day, and Business Men Were Fleetest.

OMMERCIAL CLUB, 21; ELKS, 18. When you have the score you have the whole story of the game player at Walker's field yesterday. It was truly a great exhibition of the Nationa game, the like of which has seldem been een even in the Pacific National league The game was rife with errors and there was scarcely a single good play made To think that the Commercial club challenged the Press club not more than a cear ago:

There were perhaps five small-sized street cars full of people present and a large proportion of these were deadhoads who before the game was over wished they had gone to Saitair where things are usually considerably more lively. There were several rooters for both sides present in the grand stand and they managed to provoke a mild sort of mirth by poking fun at the players.

Hit and Run the Order.

Hit and Run the Order.

Hit and run was the order of the day and the business men proved quite as fleet as the Eliks and were a little superior at butting. Dana Smith, who played first base for the Eliks, was easily the star of the game. He played a mixture of football and beschall, but was not marked up with a single error. Anything that came within twenty feet of him he sprawled out and gathered in and then tackled the runner on the five-yard line. He was also there when he came up to bat in a purple sweater and socks, and after hitting one out there was a blue streak from home to second or third, at whichever he stopped and straightened up. There was a variety of uniforms on the diamond, no two players on either side having suits alike. Griffin was the star of the Commercial club nine—at making costly errors. Jut he also made one of the twenty-one runs. Manager Fleher Harris attempted to take him out of the game, in the fourth inning and would have done so had the unsaire not ordered the officious manager off the field. Former Councilman John Sharp was the umpire of the game.

Elks Win Toss-Up.

The Elks win toss-up-if not the game-and young Bill Leary started owith a liner that carried him to first, is tole second and then tripped over the home plate on a two-bagger by Guther This was the first run and was follow by two more that inning. The Elks here runs at the end of the third again six for their opponents. The State straggregation fell down in the fourth, no a man reaching the first bag. In this is using the West Temple crowd got five means.

around, which put them one in the lead. They kept ahead the balance of the game and found it unnecessary to take their last inning.

Cargo, who frisked around in the center garden while the Elks were at bat, caught one easy fly and muffed a half dozen more just as easy. Gutherie and Everett cost their team two runs by turning the wrong way after resching first lase. The Elks lost some more runs when Magnum accidently beld on to a high one sent out in the left field by Freed. This of course was unexpected and McGraw, who had alld down to third, was too tired to beat the ball back to second. Whenever there was a pop-up in the diamond the entire infield went after it with the result that none of them ever got the ball. Love knocked one out into the right garden and then stood on the home plate until Homer let it slip through his fingers. The batter then had plenty of time to make his base.
